

The PROBLEM with baby Jesus

The Baby	The man (Lord)
Talladega nights	book of Revelation
Pray to 8 lb 6 oz infant Jesus	or soon returning King of Kings bringing justice
A baby needs to be cared for	needs to be followed, obeyed
Needs to be adored	we surrender, repent
We meet his needs, we give	He gives, we are dependents
Were in charge	we ask permission

Most other religious groups acknowledge Jesus as a good man, a prophet.
Not that He is God, he rose from the dead, he alone is the gate to salvation

While Muslims deeply admire Jesus, they do not view him as divine, the Son of God, or part of a Trinity, as they believe this would violate the absolute oneness of God (Tawhid). Furthermore, according to the Qur'an, Muslims believe Jesus was not crucified or killed, but rather was raised up by God.

Jehovah's Witnesses believe that Jesus was resurrected with a "spirit body", and that he assumed human form only temporarily after his resurrection. Jesus is Michael the archangel.

Mormons believe Jesus Christ and Lucifer are considered spirit brothers, both being among the literal spirit offspring of God the Father. Jesus is the firstborn of these spirit children, while Lucifer was a high-ranking spirit who rebelled during the premortal existence.