To Whom it May Concern,

This is a letter of recommendation in support of Tasha Billingslea, Program Director of Resilience Behavioral Health at St. Mary's Regional Medical Center since 2020. I have worked with Tasha for the past five years in this role and have found her to be an engaged, action-oriented leader of high integrity with a proven track record of accomplishments. She directs a team of 28-30 staff, has excellent relationships with peers and colleagues, and maintains an outstanding working relationship with the Medical Director of the unit and other mid-level providers.

In 2021 the unit she leads was awarded the Horizon Health Clinical Program of the Year award, and in 2022, they received the Horizon Health Customer Satisfaction Award. In both 2022 and 2023 she was nominated for the Horizon Health Program Director of the Year award. Also in 2023, Resilience Behavioral Health was a Horizon Health nominee for the Customer Satisfaction Award.

Her responsibilities are broad and include scheduling, timekeeping, productivity management, hiring and corrective actions of staff, timely reporting, annual and capital budgeting, and participation in multiple hospital committees like Falls, Skin, Medication Safety, Ops Council, Hospital Performance Improvement, and Environment of Care. Additionally, she has been an active Board member of the Oklahoma Psychiatric Hospital Association since 2024.

I would characterize Tasha as always respectful and supportive of hospital leadership, honest, sincere, relational, transparent, caring, reflective, thoughtful and intentional. She is a delight to work with and has achieved success in raising the standard and quality of care for St. Mary's Resilience Behavioral Health unit.

I would recommend Tasha without reservation for any position that she is qualified for.

Respectfully,

Rachelle Burleson, DNP, APRN-CNS
Chief Nursing Officer
St. Mary's Regional Medical Center

Letter of reference regarding Tasha Billingslea

To Whom It May Concern,

It is my pleasure to enthusiastically recommend Tasha Billingslea, Director of Behavioral Health Services, Horizon Mental Health Management (Horizon Health).

My name is Troy Mire, Vice President of Operations at Horizon Health. I have had the pleasure of working with and supervising Tasha Billingslea since 2015. As her supervisor, I have directly observed her work ethic and dedication to quality performance.

During our time together, Tasha proved to be effective, reliable, and able to work independently.

Her expertise in behavioral health and overall leadership was a huge asset that led to growth of the inpatient services at St. Mary's Regional Medical Center. I witnessed her ability to problem solve difficult situations, establish teamwork, create a positive work environment, as well as establish confidence and trust from Hospital leadership and other stakeholders.

I am confident, without reservation, Tasha would be an asset for any organization and program. She would bring exceptional organizational skills and provide a unique ability to bring people together to improve processes and accomplish the mission for your company.

Feel free to contact me at: 702-428-8522 if you have any questions or need more information regarding Tasha's skills and abilities.

Sincerely,

Troy E. Mire

RE: Reference Letter for Tasha Billingslea

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter to recommend Tasha Billingslea for a position within your organization. Mrs. Billingslea has worked at Youth and Family Services as a program coordinator from November 2003 to April 2007. Mrs. Billingslea was responsible for the First-Time Offender Program, which involved providing assessment and treatment planning activities, counseling services, and group educational classes to both adolescents and parents. Mrs. Billingslea worked closely with the Enid Municipal Courts and also collaborated with the Office of Juvenile Affairs and Garfield County Juvenile Office. She was fully responsible for the provision and documentation of services, collaboration with referral sources, and contract compliance reviews.

During her tenure at YFS, I found Mrs. Billingslea to be very conscientious and dependable. She was meticulous with her paperwork and developed very good collaborative relationships with referring agencies. She willingly took on extra assignments, such as coordinating referrals for another delinquency treatment program and recruiting, training, and supervising mentors and tutors. She was very professional, yet friendly and very easy to work with. She kept her immediate supervisor well informed, but was able and willing to work independently.

Mrs. Billingslea worked well with persons served and was effective in facilitating positive changes. Due to her willingness to accept responsibility and her organizational skills, Mrs. Billingslea was considered a 'go-to' team member for special assignments that required extra attention to detail and follow-through. She works very well within a multi-disciplinary team and has very good communication skills.

I would recommend Mrs. Billingslea for any position that meets her qualifications and interests. Feel free to contact me for additional information at 580-233-7220, if needed.

Respectfully,

Justin Simmons
Executive Director

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is in support of the superb personal and professional qualities of Tasha Billingsley, the present Juvenile Services Director for the City of Enid.

As a Municipal Judge for Enid and in my capacity of handling most of the juvenile cases, it has been a great asset to our juvenile program to have Tasha involved in various capacities beginning in 2003 to the present. She began as the First Time Offender Program Coordinator and Prevention Coordinator for Youth and Family Services from 2003 through 2006. She participated at every level of our municipal program with her expertise at the weekly staffing level, making recommendations to the court and teaching the first offender's class to parents and juveniles.

For the past two years she has been the director of juvenile services and the CIC which is the place where juveniles are processed after their arrest and released to their parents pending municipal court arraignment. In addition, Tasha has designed and implemented the pre-court assessments of juveniles prior to their coming to court and has made recommendations as to appropriate fines, community service hours and counseling services. In addition she has supervised and scheduled all of the community service and kept all records on each juvenile. She is in court for all arraignments and able to answer the court's questions about each juvenile and his or her compliance with community service.

Tasha has been extraordinary in every aspect of our program and with all of the many and various required responsibilities. Her evaluations of every juvenile have been invaluable as have her recommendations and advice to the court. She is always prepared and a reasonable voice in the midst of very complicated and difficult life situations presented to the court. I count on her for the soundest of information and advice.

She is an extraordinary professional and person in every way and I could not recommend her more highly.

Very truly yours,

Linda McKnight Pickens
Municipal Judge

To whom it may concern:

January 4th, 2010

It is without hesitation that I write this reference/recommendation for Tasha Billingslea. Tasha started with the Enid Police Department, City of Enid in January of 2008 as Juvenile Services Manager and I have supervised her for over a 1 ½ years. Tasha was able to very quickly "hit the ground running" and in a short time she was able to revamp the Community Intervention Center (CIC), bringing CIC into compliance with the State of Oklahoma, Office of Juvenile Affairs and rewrote and/or refined the CIC and drug court testing practices to ensure better efficiency and accuracy. An example of her willingness to increase efficiency was a requirement for CIC employees to be given M.A.B (managing aggressive behavior) training which we never had done. Tasha volunteered to become certified to teach this training to employees at a considerable cost savings to the department. Tasha in addition to her managing duties of CIC, she over sees the C.O.R.P.S juvenile community service program. Tasha has cultivated numerous contacts in the juvenile social services community both on the local level as well as on the state level and is well respected by her colleagues. Tasha has implemented some of her ideas to make CIC/Juvenile services run more efficient. Tasha also has been praised from the State of Oklahoma, Office of Juvenile Affairs board of inspectors for her work.

Tasha has over 15 years experience in her related field, a masters degree in applied psychology, advanced knowledge in word and excel programs, advanced knowledge of the juvenile court system, referral agencies and juvenile protocol. Tasha is extremely organized and is very proactive in making the organization more efficient and cost effective while providing enhanced services to the public. Tasha has great people skills and is a very dedicated, hard working employee. Tasha also has high-quality management skills as she manages several employees in juvenile services.

I would recommend Tasha to any position or company where dedication, organization and the ability to deal with people and other employees in a "team player style" are some of the goals.

Please contact me should you require any further assistance.
